

Updates

- In June, we attended the Solas ALL (Adult Literacy for Life) event in Athlone as one of the projects showcased. We were joined by a group from Belmayne Community Group and The Women's Collective Mullingar. The group spoke about the impact of doing our course and the difference it made to their lives.
- We delivered training to tutors in Longford Westmeath ETB in Athlone in July.
- We visited Conor Reale in Leinster House who works in Oireachtas education. He hosts visiting groups to share all about how parliament works.
- We delivered training to a group of tutors, library staff, ETB, adult and community education tutors as part of their Erasmus programme on citizenship and civic engagement.
- We conducted a survey on our voter project to find out who we worked with over the year. Results to follow!

Upcoming Events

- SAVE THE DATE! After our inaugural conference last November, we are planning another Voter Voices conference on Tuesday 5th November in The Richmond Education and Event Centre, 1 Brunswick St N, Smithfield, Dublin. Details and invites to follow in the coming weeks.
- NALA has organised a student event with DALC in the Gresham Hotel, Dublin (Rui Plaza) on 28 September. This exciting day is for adults developing their literacy, numeracy and digital skills. See nala.ie/events

- The ETBI conference is on the 25th & 26th of Sept in Wexford. DALC will be there to share our work. Details on etbi.ie

DALC are back open after the summer! Please get in touch on vote@dalc.ie if you are delivering training with groups for further support.

